Learning at Home Overview

Money - Make a grocery list for your family. Find out how much five items cost (to the nearest dollar). Add them together to find the total amount spent.

You might like to use a receipt from the last time your parents went shopping or a catalogue to get an idea of how much items cost.

Example

Milk	Cereals	Sausages	Bread	Biscuits	Total
$2	$5	$6	$3	$4	$20

Lunch

Afternoon Block

Quiet reading or free drawing

Afternoon Block

Kindness Jar

Did you see someone being kind? Pop a note in the jar.

Kindness Jar

Did you see someone being kind? Pop a note in the jar.

Learning at home Daily Plan Thursday 21st May 2020
Time	Activity	Tick when complete
Morning Block	Read a book – make a list of ‘sp’ words you see in the text.
Crunch Break
Morning Block	Inquiry – Finding Out Interview an older family member – You may wish to call, email, skype or facetime your older family member or maybe write to them and then post your interview! When were they born? What are some of their favourite memories? What are their biggest achievements? What are they most proud of?
Morning snack/Play Break
Middle Block	Maths Warm Up –Skip counting Write down a two digit number (eg 27, 45, 39) or find it on your 1-100 chart. (Challenge – choose a 3 or 4 digit number) Count backwards from your number in 2s, then 10s until you reach a single digit number. Main Activity - Boom Creating the game (Boom): On strips of cardboard or paddle pop sticks, write down equations to test people in your family using any operations you know (+ - × ÷) An example is 20 – 5. (You must know the answer). Place them in a jar or box and label it the Boom Jar or Boom Box. Include 3 strips with BOOM written instead of a sum. Playing Boom - Challenge a member(s) of your family to play Boom, by taking it in turns to pick out a strip/stick. If someone answers the sum correctly then they keep the sum in their pile. If a player picks out BOOM they have to return all their sticks to the jar. Invite family members to add sums to the Boom Jar for next time you play.
Middle Block	Finish off a job of your choice from the week
Lunch
